Where comfort becomes the room's favourite place

Every sofa is built around the way you actually sit.
Not just how it photographs — comfort comes first.

ABOUT MAPLE

Stay a little longer, made to live in

We build sofas for the hours you don't schedule.

The coffee that turns into conversation. The film that becomes two. The Sunday you decide not to leave the house. Every Maple sofa is made to feel inviting on day one — and even better after years of being lived in.

Because real luxury isn't something you admire from across the room. It's the place everyone reaches for first.
